Aim and scope

Cauriensia is an annual journal of studies and research in the area of Ecclesiastical Sciences (humanities - history, philosophy, theology... - and Social Sciences - pedagogy, psychology, sociology...–) taught at the Theological Institute "San Pedro de Alcántara" of the diocese of Coria-Cáceres, affiliated to the Faculty of Theology San Isidoro of Seville. Thus, in addition to ecclesiastical themes of a universal nature, there are also those of the religious reality of the region of Extremadura, the diocesan life and the Institute itself, as the journal is its organ of cultural and scientific expression.

Opportunities for collaboration within the alliance

We would like to be able to count on the research of your researchers and that they could also participate as reviewers of the articles, we are waiting for you.

Contact the directors on the Web pages.

Conclusions & Invitation to Collaborate

The collaboration between our universities will make us grow and internationalize our journals more, so we all win.

It's going to be a great opportunity!
